Ep.04

upu-pupu ...
i told you guys before to find out who's the blacken is right?
after a short time of investigate we'll start a 'class trial'!
a corpse has been found!
"class trial"?
i'll punish everyone beside the blacken
if you guys don't investigate and figure out who's the blacken
...
i don't believe it!
are you saying that the murder is one of us!

komaeda
...
i won't believe it.. that the person who's murdered togami kun is one of us ....
there's no way something hopeless like that will happened !
.but that's why i'll investigate about togamu kun's death there's no need for us to distrust or lie to each other the thing we should be fighting isn't our allies,it should be ... the despair!
the hopeless reality ....
the true enemies we need to fight ....
04

uhu-huhu
to have to investigate an ally's dead how cruel ...!
we have no choice but to do it ...!
to survive against the enemy
so let's cherish our intuitions its obvious,but were all armatures ibuki, doesn't know
um... so in general whet do we need to do?
and from there, we explain that togami kun's killer
isn't one of us.....
05

good luck on your invest-igation
the monokuma files courteously collect and confirms facts regarding the body tah-dah! it's the monokuma files!
.... mono-kuma files ?
in addition there's no particular trauma nor trace of drug found wound from throat to belly about 10 cuts
the dead of time is 11 30
the body was discovered in the main hall of the old loadge
mono-kuma files

yeah
i have searched Togami's surroundings .....
do you have a second ?
have you found any clue in the hall?
..... togami is really dead
second, under the table, i found some glowing stain and a knife which is also covered by the same paint first, i found out there's a night vision goggles although, beside this could togami used either by the killer or Togami komaeda did you find anything ?
hmm .....
third togami's body doesn't look like it has been moved or dragger
togami was killed under the table during blackout 17

11.30..?
I remember that the timer of the aircon in the office is the same
The aircon in the office too..? This isn't a coincidence..!
In the main hall, the aircon timer was set up at 11.30...
it's the same time Togami was killed ...
AUTO COOL DRY FAN HEAT

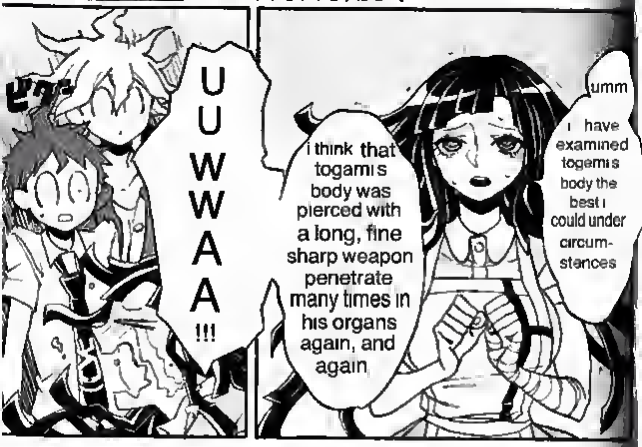
with those photos I appointed everyone's position
I took a photo of everyone a moment before the blackout ...
excuse me, can I have a moment? ... this...
mmh?
E..
Ex excuse me —
The lamps are completely blacked
Lecture Room
Kitchen
Storage
Room 2
Thank you Koizumi. I think this can be helpful.



UUWAA !!!
i think that togami's body was pierced with a long, fine sharp weapon penetrate many times in his organs again, and again
umm
i have examined togami's body the best i could under circumstances

t-thank tsumiki ....
woah there even mushroom on you
uuwaa
i i'm s-sorry
i think i get it most of what you trying to said
t-take it easy .

hey, hinata-kun...
yeah ....
then we can conclude the research in the main hall ?

That's not a problem... but why me?
mmh... mmh... because...
Would you like to come with me to hear what everyone has to say, now?
If i go alone, someone could suspect me and don't tell me some details
You really like Hope's Peak Accademy, don't you?
Hinata-kun is just like me...
Then let's go investigating for now
...that's right... but i don't know why

so the investigation in the old loadge is done?
!?

First of all... we've found 3 unnaturally set irons in the storage room
the box near them was messy and there was a bloodstained tablecloth
Yeah
Shall we reorganize new evidences and and the care places?
yes, I got it
There's a firedoor between the kitchen and the main hall
The box where Togami put the weapons is still locked
The voices Mioda heard during the blackout
Then... is the kitchen
He said "It's impossible to get under the floor" Tanaka's earrin fall into the gap of the old floor and he tried to retrive it, but...

Things have no connection between them but clues are increasing in number
yeah
there were just a huge chunk of meat and some dishes
among the items in the kitchen equipment list, we only found the portable and the BBQ griddle
there isn't anything like a weapon
I'm a bit worried If I go alone I could encounter some danger
Could you, Hinata-kun?
Finally... can you come with me to Togami's room?
You mean about the fact that I don't think you're the culprit?
You never thought that it might be dangerous if you go with me?
why with me again?

what do you mean?
And wanting me to doubt the others is impossible To tell the truth... I've never thought about it because if you have to suspect others to live .....
isn t it better to believe in someone and to be killed ?

Stop it... Saying that it's better to be killed...!
We are working hard to try to survive
Really worthy of you
You say that you're not "strong" but from my point of view you're very "powerful"
You have the right to be chosen by Hope's Peak Accademy
We have to go to Togami's room, right?
This isn't the moment to talk about useless things
...yeah
Let's go

heey mono-kuma!!
the door, it is locked appear!
komaeda - since when have you tamed monokuma?
we just want to investigate this room, do you mind opening this door?
oh my, what a rough method to summon me !!!
huh? this is ...

Keep Alert

Damn!
Togami .. He hid it to protect everyone .
...sorry I want to stay alone for a while I should go out now Eh?
...Komaeda? You look pale Are you ok?
Then..
See ya...
oh... uhm...

What happened to Komaeda...?
Everybody, please gather at the Monokuma Rocks on the Central Island
Yes! It's time for our long-awaited class trial!
Ko Komaeda
Hanamura-kun

sorry I'm still alive
DAMN !
WHY...
Why is Togami dead and you're still alive!
eh?
Really?
If you didn't do unneccessary things
this murder wouldn't have happened
In fact.
You want to go out of this island no matter who will be killed, right?

You had a huge determination to act for your "hope". It's a praiseworthy thing!
However... This isn't something to regret and be ashamed of It's ok
I'm on Hope's side
It's not a problem if I'll be executed
You just have to think about how to survive this class trial
I... for hope's sake I'm willing to be a stepping stone and die
The hope is coming... So...
Togami was a responsible leader... but he didn't have the absolute hope

My mother is protecting it too... She's alone and sick... But she's waiting for me
I... I promise... I will save Hanamura Restaurant...
Monokuma Rocks Class trial
No matter how I will leave this island and go back home
